Keeping you connected with life and ministry

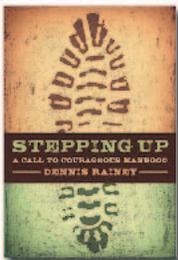

To God be the Glory!

The start of this year has been so busy, but thrilling as we've been involved in several different avenues of our ministry. A few months ago, we talked about FamilyLife's Mentor Guide and making it fully functional for computers and smart phones. Well, we've just finished work on the rest of the eMentoring site, which provides training for individuals and churches, connects believers with opportunities to mentor outside their community, and allows those in need to connect with a trained eMentor.

Recently, Michael got to take part in the filming of one of the segments in the upcoming DVD resource based on Dennis Rainey's Stepping Up. With the success of the film, Courageous, and books like Stepping Up, it's obvious that God is at work to wake up men and see them fulfill the family leadership roles to which he has called them. We'll let you know more about this new project as work progresses.

FAMILYLIFE presents weekend to remember®

The Spring season of Weekend to Remember getaways is well underway. We've enjoyed the privilege of praying for the events and seeing the impact. One attendee had this to say about the getaway in Charleston, South Carolina:

"Absolutely life changing! We were on a crash course to become another failed marriage statistic, but we have renewed hope. Divorce is never a word that will be spoken in our family."

FamilyLife.com

Our main website averages about 15,000 unique visitors each day, and hosts thousands of articles, audio files, and other resources designed to help men and women with their marriages, family relationships, raising children, spiritual growth, and more. That's a lot of bandwidth! In order to keep up with the growth of our ministry, God has led us to change to a new website content management system called Sitecore. We hope to complete the move in mid April. Please pray for a smooth transfer of our content to the new website and that God will continue to bless the FamilyLife site as it ministers to marriages and families around the world!

Of course, this transition has required training for the new system. After training, Michael was the only designer (non-programmer) to earn Sitecore Developer Certification.

Please Pray

FamilyLife - that God continues to bless the Weekend to Remember events. We've seen more than 250 people receive Christ as savior so far this Spring!

- for God's blessings on new tools for HomeBuilders, like the Stepping Up Video and Smart Stepfamilies.

Michael & Alecia - for continued wisdom and energy as we balance marriage, parenting, ministry, and foster care.

Gabriel & Naomi - for health as they recover from a recent virus which resulted in an ear infection for Gabriel and pneumonia for Naomi.

B13 - for a speedy resolution to his legal situation (the court determined that he will not return home), and for the courage to make right choices independent of his peers.

Muffin Twins - for their health and development and for their final court date.

2 Timothy 2:2 in Action!

We just had to share this testimony from some new HomeBuilders in Colorado:

"My husband and I attended a Weekend to Remember in March of 2011. We were literally on the verge of divorce and the retreat saved our marriage. We have both been through previous marriages and seen the devastation of divorce. My husband accepted Christ during our first Weekend to Remember. I have seen him accept the role of leading our family and we have become passionate about helping others save their marriages. We have committed to attending a Weekend to Remember every year for fine tuning of our relationship. After sharing our story with others at our place of work, we received monetary donations that allowed us to give 12 couples the gift of free registration to attend a Weekend to Remember. Without having attended a Weekend to Remember we may never have discovered God's purpose for marriage and may have gone through another divorce. I have wanted many things: successful career, beauty, material things. But after these two Weekends, I want nothing more than to know my God and what He wants for us. The legacy my husband and I will leave is seen as an honorable thing. Nothing is honorable about what I wanted before. Although we feel very inadequate in regards to how marriages succeed, God has used our weaknesses to reach so many couples in our community."

Please pray that God will call even more couples to become HomeBuilders - individuals and couples with a willingness and desire to share God's plan for families with others in their community.

You have heard me teach things that have been confirmed by many reliable witnesses. Now teach these truths to other trustworthy people who will be able to pass them on to others. 2 Timothy 2:2 NLT

We are praying for you daily! Let us know if we can pray for a specific need on your behalf. Please continue to pray for our family, our ministry, and those we are privileged to touch with the Gospel.
